Compassion

Consider Compassion. She understands and she cares.

If you are feeling sad, she is a shining light.

She understands that no act of kindness, however small, is ever wasted and one kind word can change a person's day.

Compassion sees the best in others even when they can't see it in themselves. She wants you to feel good.

If you encounter compassion, look out! Everywhere you go, you will leave a glitter trail of goodness behind you.
