

Kelvin Grove
Primary School

Respect

Run with Respect if you expect respect from yourself first; if you're prepared to give respect to earn some back. Respect believes in himself and others. He listens and thinks before he decides.

He respects your feelings.

Respect understands that we all have different skills of equal worth.

Living with respect means understanding that, even if it means nothing to me, it could mean everything to you.

